Pedestal #32181000

The Highline Pedestal is a modular, strong and flexible storage unit for personal use in the office and at home.

The modular drawer housing can hold 8 different sizes of drawers for various uses, from storing personal articles to documents, office accessories, CD's, diskettes and other items. The drawers have optional locking capabilities. By using a range of front colours, the unit can be adapted to different office finishes and changing furniture environments.

The unit can be used as an underdesk pedestal, or as a mobile unit near the workspace of individuals.
